Frequently Asked Questions

Thank you for your interest in serving on Connecticut After School Network Board of Directors. The Network's formal Bylaws cover the make-up, duties, powers, terms of office and other details concerning our Board. The following is a less formal summary of information that is intended to answer frequently asked questions about the Connecticut After School Network's Board:

1. How many people serve on the Board of Directors?

The Board expanded from eight to fifteen members during the summer of 2007.

2. Who elects members of the Board?

Professional individual and organizational members in good standing elect new members to the Board at their annual meeting. The Board of Directors votes to fill any vacancies.

3. How long are the terms of each appointment?

Each term is three years. Members may be re-appointed for a maximum of 3 consecutive terms. Terms are staggered.

4. What are Board members' responsibilities?

The Board is responsible for overall policy and direction of the organization, and delegates responsibility of day-to-day operations to the staff.

5. What is the time commitment?

Board meetings are generally one and half hours long, held monthly except for August. Meeting location is established by the Board Chair. In July, there is usually a one day organizational planning retreat in lieu of a regular meeting. Board members are also encouraged to participate in the different events, conferences and meetings held by the Network throughout the state.

6. What about expenses for Board members?

Members are not paid an honorarium for their services, nor are they reimbursed for their travel to and from meetings.

7. Where can I get more information?

Please feel free to contact Michelle Doucette Cunningham, Executive Director at 860-730-2941 (office) or 860-794-4978 (cell)
