

New!! Program Power Up!

If you are looking to bring your program to the next level, need a boost in your staff meetings or hungry for new content to present Program Power Ups may be just the thing to quench your staff's thirst for knowledge.

What does a Program Power Up! come with?

- Full powerpoint, handouts, and training materials to conduct a one hour staff meeting
- Topics that are impactful and relevant to the quality of your staff and program
- Expert advice on how to engage staff in the conversation and the content
- And much more.

What do they cost?

- Only your time and willingness to add intentionality to your staff meetings

What will my staff get out of it?

- A chance to build community within the program as they learn together
- Techniques that can be immediately implemented with little to no additional cost
- The ability to work with the children and families served with mindfulness

Who can I contact with any questions?

- You can email Dr. Ken Anthony at kanthony@ctncy.org for more information or questions.
